CEMETERY OF THE HEART.
BY J. T. HOKE.

In the lone and silent grave-yard,
O'er the still and pulseless dead,
Stand the snow-white blocks of marble
At each silent sleeper's head.

Bearing thoughts and dear mementos
Of the loved ones resting there,
Words perhaps that last were spoken—
Fragments of a dying prayer.

Rank and file the white forms standing,
Guard as sentries round the dead,
And when mid-night broods in silence
Fill the gloom with phantoms dread.

Thus the heart's lone cemetery,
Where the perished hopes are laid,
Bears on shafts of Parian marble
Lines of light that never fade.

Here a rosy dream of youth-time—
Here a love, and here a joy,
Here a thought of brightest future,
Broken as a childish toy.

Here are feelings pure and stainless,
As the crystals on the snow,
Here are longings for some fair one,
Whose bright eyes like diamonds flow.

Here are buried childhood fancies,
And beside them hopes mature,
Bright desires, loves and passions,
All are buried—base and pure.

'Tis the grave yard of affections,
In the valley of the heart,
Where remembrance fondly lingers,
Till the burning tear-drops start.

And when life is all a ruin,
And the heart is in decay,
And the trailing ivy twining,
O'er each column finds its way.

Then Reflection loves to wander,
In this grave-yard of the past,
And there rest among the shadows,
From the marble columns cast.

From the Atlantic Monthly for November.
THE CONSPIRACY AT WASHINGTON.

The people of the United States now have the mortification of standing before the world in the attitude of a swindled democracy.—Their collective will is crossed by the will of one individual, whose only title to such autocracy is in the fact that he has cheated and betrayed those who elected him. There might be some little compensation for this outrage, if the man possessed any of those commanding qualities of mind and disposition which ordinarily distinguish usurpers; but it is the peculiarity of Mr. Johnson that the indignation excited by his claims is only equalled by the contempt excited by his character. He is despised even by those he benefits, and his nominal supporters feel ashamed of the trickster and apostate, while condescending to reap the advantages of his faithlessness. No party in the South or in the North thinks of selecting him as its candidate, for the vices and weaknesses which make an excellent accomplice and tool are not those which any party would consider desirable in a leader. Whatever office-seekers, partisans, traitors, and public enemies can find in Mr. Johnson, it is certain that they find in him nothing to respect. He is cursed with that form of moral

REBELS MUST BE PREFERRED!

Two of the lately elected State officers of Kentucky, were Colonels in John Morgan's guerrilla band. They were regularly nominated and elected by the "Democracy" of that loyal State. So JAMES S. FRANKLIN of the Rebel Army was yesterday elected by the Democracy of Maryland to one of their best offices.

We observe that Major FAYETTE HEWITT has just been appointed Quartermaster General of that State. He was Assistant General to the Kentucky Brigade in the Rebel army which fought at Chickamauga under General HARDIX HELM.

Some of our Pennsylvania boys were in that bloody battle. It will interest them to know that the "Democrats" of Kentucky have given one of their best offices to an officer who wore the Rebel gray.

CHARACTERISTIC.

At Dayton, Ohio, 75 invalid soldiers, inmates of a Soldiers' Home, were taken to the polls to vote for Gen. HAYES to a man. They were all crippled and helpless, but the Democratic crowd was cowardly enough to insult them with coarse epithets, while some yelled: "Pity you hadn't lost both your d—d arms." "Sorry that the other leg was left." "Pity the rebels hadn't killed you."

A COPPERHEAD paper says:

By the elections this fall the Democrats gain three United States Senators in the next Congress—in California, Ohio and Connecticut—but this "is of no consequence," we are told by the Radicals.

The gain in California merely offsets a Republican gain of the year before, and will give one Senator to each party as before.

The Republicans have gained one in Tennessee, which makes up for Ohio.

The Connecticut Legislature to choose a Senator will not be elected till next Spring, and the retiring Senator, DIXON, is a Copperhead. How can they gain any if they re-elect him? But that is yet to be done.

Next year, the Republicans will have a shot at BUCKALEW of Pennsylvania, and HENDRICKS of Indiana, and intend to hit both—thus making the Senate as near a unit as it is safe to have it.

THE "Democratic" Editors complain that the State has been so districted, legislatively, that they have not carried the legislature. They forget how shamefully "gerrymandered" the State when they had power; and how unscrupulously they wielded every agency to keep themselves in the majority. They succeeded—until their sympathy with the Rebels aroused the people, and drove them into a minority. The existing apportionment is a fair one. The real lesson of the Election is, that the "Democratic" legislative candidates didn't run as well as their State Ticket. But if it were otherwise, the politicians of the "democratic" party have no right to complain of being obliged to take the medicine they, formerly, mercilessly forced on their adversaries.

THE Freedmen's Bureau will expire next July, by limitation. It is understood that General HOWARD will not recommend its continuance beyond that time, in case the reconstruction of the South should be accomplished by that period, which is regarded now as highly probable. The Bureau has been of incalculable service in re-organizing the industry of the South; and has done much towards harmonizing the relations of the employers and the employed. It has been worth all it has cost. But the restoration of these States and the inauguration of civil rule in the South, will of course render the further continuance of their machinery unnecessary.

THE "Secesh" newspapers of Virginia are violently abusive of the colored voters for not voting with, and giving the majority to the Dem ocracy of that State.—When Virginia was reorganizing under JOHNSON's plan, the Democracy enacted laws which, if permitted to stand, would have virtually re-established Slavery, under the guise of "regulating contracts for labor." The Emancipated Slaves are represented by the Democracy to be very ignorant. But they have intelligence enough to vote against their enemies, honesty enough to withstand all temptations, and courage to defy all threats.

THE New York World calls the "Democrats" the "true Union men." Why, then, do the Southern "Democrats" vote to a man against re-construction and reunion? And why do the Northern "Democrats" urge them to this course?

The only true Union men are the men who are in favor of restoring the Union at the earliest moment, and in the best mode to guard the country against a possible repetition of Rebellion. These men are the Republicans; and it is gratifying to know that they are numerous enough to do what they propose.

NORTHERN Copperheads plead hard that Southern Rebels and Copperheads shall be retained in the political coat of of the Rebel States; but the fiat has gone forth that they shall be re-constructed and restored in the interest of Loyalty and Liberty. The Rebels must take a "back seat." Democratic domination in these States, gave us the Rebellion. Republican domination in them will give us the blessed fruits of peace, prosperity, and plenty.

CORRUPTION at elections in England is increasing, with its wealth. The successful candidate for Parliament in Birmingham recently spent $18,000 in gold, and the defeated candidate, $25,000, or an average of between nine and ten dollars for every vote he received.

WALLACE's tactics tend to produce a like condition of things in this country.

THE Copperheads began to crow over the late election in WEST VIRGINIA; but that was before they were "out of the woods." The Republicans have increased their strength in the State Senate, and held their last year's vote of four to one in the House. We like such Republican defeats!

"BIRDS OF A FEATHER."

Of James S. Franklin, Democratic candidate for Clerk of the Court of Appeals of Maryland, the Annapolis Gazette gives this sketch:

"For one of the most lucrative and responsible offices in the gift of the people of the State, the democratic party has nominated James S. Franklin, of this city, who left his home here in the Autumn of 1862, ran the blockade into Virginia, and there took up arms, not only against his country, but against the State, to which, as State's Attorney, of Anne Arundel county, he had sworn to bear true faith and allegiance. Mr. Franklin was an ardent State's right's democrat previous to the war, and we believe we do him no injustice in saying that his fine talents were devoted to the effort to force Maryland into the vortex of secession and rebellion. When it was found that a majority of her people were opposed to secession, his State's rights principles were not strong enough to induce him to take up arms in her defence, but on the contrary, he with others endeavored by violence and force to accomplish what her people would not do willingly. After two years of armed effort to bring about this result, he was captured in one of the numerous engagements before Petersburg; was a prisoner at the North at the time of Lee's surrender; was afterwards paroled, and is to day the candidate of the Johnson party of Maryland for Clerk of the Court of Appeals."

All over the Southern States, such rebels as Franklin would be chosen to fill the highest offices, if the Congressional plan of Reconstruction had not enfranchised a new class of voters who will take care of all such gentlemen. In Maryland, however, they have, at present, full swing.

WE last week under-stated the majority in VIRGINIA for a Convention and Restoration. Instead of being about 30,000, it is 15,575.

Of course, the Rebels in the South howl with rage. The Copperheads in the North "follow suit." If Virginia was reconstructing with the "Rebel side" up, it would be all right in their eyes. It is all wrong, as the Rebels are down and Unionists like UNDERWOOD and HAWKHURST are up.

GEORGIA voted last week on a Convention and Restoration, and has fallen into Republican line, by about 15,000 majority.

JOHNSON did his best to defeat the Convention movement in GEORGIA, but wholly failed. Thus far, every one of the Rebel States has voted to "accept the situation," and seek Restoration to their old places in the Union under the Congressional policy.

IT is amusing to look at Copperhead pyramids. They include such States as Maine, Vermont, New Hampshire, Iowa, and Nevada, where there are hardly enough Copperheads make up the skeleton of an organization. Not one has gone for the Copperheads since the repeal of the Missouri Compromise; and the stars will fall about the time they fall from the Republican firmament.

THE reader's attention is invited to a caustic article on the first page of to-day's paper from the Atlantic Monthly, entitled "The Conspiracy at Washington." We presume it is from the pen of Mr. WHIPPLE, who has contributed several articles on the same subject in previous numbers of the Atlantic Monthly.

THE New York Day Book pronounces Emancipation to have been an "impious, fathomless, and unpardonable crime."—Yet Southern Democrats wonder why these Emancipated men will not vote the ticket labelled "Democratic!"

THE DIABOLICAL SPIRIT OF MODERN DEMOCRACY.—At a meeting of the Copperheads held at Hillsboro', Ohio, Mr. Vallandigham was advertised to speak, but just before that appostle commenced, the chairman, Mr. Jillson announced that he had just received a letter and he would like to read it. Mr Vallandigham said certainly, and Mr. Jillson read as follows:

"IN HELL, ROOM NO. 74,450.

"To the Black Republicans of Ohio:

"I am here suffering torments for my crimes and inspiration while on earth. I am reminded of my great wickedness, and send these words to you that you may take warning.—George Washington passed me on the other side of the great gulf, but only looked at me with unutterable scorn. Take warning by my fate.

[Signed] "ABRAHAM LINCOLN."

The double-eyed, impious devil read the foregoing production with a malicious chuckle, and the great (?) Vallandigham made it the basis of an appeal to his audience to avoid hell by voting with the "Democratic" party. The narration of this diabolical piece of treasonable impudence called forth a hurricane of hisses from the audience, and seemed to deepen the hatred which all respectable people must entertain for a party that can tolerate such beastly profanity.

A FEW weeks ago, General Swayne appointed an exemplary colored man, named Alexander Webb, to act as register under the reconstruction act, in one of the districts in Alabama. He was a saddler by trade, and had just purchased a small patch of ground and erected upon it a little tenement of his own in which he had opened a shop. He had secured the confidence of the community by his industry and unusual intelligence; but when he was selected, a ruffian named Orrick, one of Mosby's gang, said that he never would allow himself to be registered by a negro; so when the day came, Orrick entered the office of registration, and, approaching Webb with a smile and a hearty welcome, drew his pistol and fired three balls, which entered Webb's heart; of course, producing instant death.—Orrick quietly escaped; and though it is given out that he has gone to Honduras, nobody donbts that he is still in the neighborhood.—Webb died, leaving a young family by a second wife. When the knowledge of the tragedy reached Washington, a meeting of the Republicans of that city concluded to take the eldest child and place him in the Howard University, where he will be educated.

MR. SWETT, Republican candidate for Superintendent of Education, who has just been defeated in California, is the author of the California System of Education, which has worked so admirably in that State. He has held the office for several years. Fitzgerald, who defeated Mr. Swett, is a clergyman of the Methodist Church South, and during the war was a notorious and malignant advocate of secession. So obnoxious did he become at one time that the indignant people of San Francisco were on the point of tearing down his Church.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Oct. 26.—A terrible accident occurred at the Hoosac Tunnel on Saturday, by which thirteen men were either killed outright or suffocated to death. The gasoline works at the mouth of the shaft exploded and burned, falling down the shaft and burying the whole gang of workmen at the bottom. The bodies will not be exhumed for several days.

IMPROVEMENTS IN LITTLESTOWN.—Messrs. Sell, Bleicher & Co., are building a large two story brick house, 24 by 50 feet, to be leased as a coach shop.—Andrew Jones and Augustus Crouse, have recently built two houses, which are nearly finished.—The Catholic congregation have about completed a school-house near their church.—Misses Julia and Margaret Howard have nearly finished a house.

FINE EDIFICE.—In a recent trip through Oxford township, we were pleased to notice that our Catholic friends residing in that section of the township bordering on Conewago, have recently erected a fine and commodious brick edifice in Irishtown, which is to be used as a Church and School. The building is of tasty design, and has been finished throughout in the most substantial manner.—Hanover Spectator.

THE PLACE TO BUY.—The persons to buy from are those who advertise their business in the newspapers. Read our home advertisements, and make your purchases from persons of business enterprise who are not afraid of the trifling expense incurred in soliciting your custom. You will always buy cheaper from the thorough business man who advertises than from the drone who don't. This fact is well known.

ENCOURAGE ENTERPRISE.—An exchange says: If you wish to keep your town from thriving, turn a cold shoulder to every young mechanic or beginner in business—kill him off if you can. Look up to every new comer with a scowl and discourage all you can; if that won't do, decry his work and go abroad for wares of his kind, rather than give him your money. Last but not least, refuse to patronize the village paper. "Then go to seed." There is no more effectual way to retard the growth of a town than this.

IMPORTANT RAILROAD ARRANGEMENT.—By our advertising columns, it will be seen that, this morning, a new arrangement took effect, which will give us two exclusively Passenger Trains daily. The first will leave at 8.15 A. M., returning at 12.40.—The second will leave at 1.50 P. M., returning at 5.30.

An exclusively Freight train has been put on, which will leave Hanover Junction at 7.30 A. M., arriving in Gettysburg about 11, and leaving at 2.30 P. M. This arrangement will give our shippers an opportunity to make three trips a week; and will be a matter of great convenience to citizens and travelers.

PROPERTY SALES IN LITTLESTOWN.—WILLIAM H. HEFFORD has sold his house and lot to ABRAHAM LONG, for $1,100.—LEVI CREBS has sold his tavern stand to WM. H. HEFFORD, for $2,700.—JOSIAH HARNER has sold his house and half lot to JNO. MEHRING, for $1,000.—JOHN COVER has sold his house and lot to JOSIAH HARNER, for $1,000.—Mrs. BISHOP (widow of Jacob) has sold her house and lot to Mr. BAUMGARTNER, for $800.—FRED'K RIFE has sold three building lots to JAS. LILLY, for $900.—EPH. MYERS, Esq., has sold a building lot to AMOS SHEELY, for $355.—GEO. SMITH has sold his house and half lot to HAMILTON WINTERODE, for $650.

ACCIDENT AND AMPUTATION.—On Wednesday last, Mr. FRANCIS OVERBAUGH of Littlestown, a young man about 20 years of age, met with a very serious accident on the Littlestown Railroad, about two miles from Hanover, while walking on the track. Mr. O. being permanently deaf, did not hear the signal, and was consequently thrown from the track by the engine. His left leg was mangled to such an extent as to make amputation necessary. He was taken by the same train at noon, to Littlestown, when medical aid was procured. The amputation was performed by Dr. R. S. SEISS immediately below the knee, assisted by Drs. MERRING, KRUMBINE and SIMESER. The patient has since been doing well.

STRABAN INFANTRY.—The Copperheads of Straban have organized a company under the above title, and elected E. G. Heagy, Captain; A. Kinz, First Lieutenant; J. L. Toy, Second Lieutenant. They are said to be trying to hurry up the complete organization, and get their arms so as to be ready to co-operate with Swann's militia when called on by Andy Johnson!

A movement to organize a company without regard to party, was broken up; and this political organization is the re-sult. No good citizen should countenance, under any circumstances, a military company in which only one of the political parties is represented—we care not by whom started, or for what ostensible object. The principle is vicious, and the result can be only mischief.

PROPERTY SALES.—Mr. SOLOMON BENDER, of Menallen township, has disposed of his farm to JOSEPH CLINE, for $11,000.

Mr. JOHN WEAVER, Executor of Sebastian Weaver, deceased, sold on the 28th ult., the property of said deceased, in Mt. Pleasant township—15 acres with improvements, for $1,930 cash, to ANDREW GERRICK, of Mt. Pleasant.

Hon. JOEL B. DANNER has sold his house and lot on East Middle street, to ALFRED SCHNEBLY for $625.

Jos. WEIKS has bought from ISAAC R. SMITH, his three lots on S. E. corner of Railroad and Washington streets, for $1,925 cash.

INAUGURATION OF THE JUBILEE SERVICES.—According to previous announcement, the Lutheran congregations of this place observed Thursday as a day of special thanksgiving for the blessings of the Reformation, it being the Three Hundred and Fiftieth Anniversary of the day usually reckoned as the inauguration of that great event, viz: October 31, 1517. The morning services, in which both congregations participated, were held in St. James' Church, on York street. The edifice was appropriately decorated with evergreen, &c.—Over the pulpit there was a large arch bearing the inscription:

OCT. 31, 1517.

THE DAWN OF THE REFORMATION.

On each side of this there was a smaller arch, the one having upon it the name of the Great Reformer, the other telling what he gave to the world, thus:

MARTIN LUTHER. AN OPEN BIBLE.

A pyramid of beautiful flowers adorned the table within the chancel. The exercises began with special singing by the choir, and were continued in the usual order of the church services, one of the hymns sung being a translation of Luther's great Battle Song, he inning—

"A sure stronghold our God is still."

An appropriate discourse was delivered by Rev. Dr. BROWN, of the Theological Seminary, who took as his text, Exodus 12: 14: "And this day shall be unto you for a memorial," opening with a reference to the divine warrant and many human examples we have for observing such days, and, in the course of the sermon, directing the attention to the great good resulting from the Reformation, and our responsibility and obligations in consequence. Rev. Dr. HAY, of the Seminary, assisted in the pulpit services. A joint meeting of the Sunday Schools was held at the same place, in the afternoon, which was addressed in an interesting manner by Rev. Prof. CONRAD of Pennsylvania College, and Rev. Dr. HAY. The exercises were interspersed with singing by the Schools. In the evening, at the College Church, there were addresses by Rev. Profs. FERRIER and WILKEN, of the College (the latter speaking in German), Rev. Mr. BARNDERFER, the pastor of St. James', and Rev. Dr. BAUGHMAN. Tasteful devices which were brief and forcible, were presented, singing by the choir and congregation, prayer, and reading of, and comments upon, portions of the 12th Psalm, by the pastor, Rev. Dr. HAY. The exercises throughout to-day were marked by appropriateness and interest, and were attended and participated in by large and attentive audiences. The College Church was very handsomely trimmed with evergreen, and the walls adorned with suitable mottoes in gilt. From the centre to the corners of the ceiling and ends of the gallery, and around the walls of the church were suspended graceful festoons. A large hanging bracket depended from the centre of the ceiling. Wreaths of evergreen were also twined around the pilars supporting the gallery. Back of the pulpit were the opening words of Luther's hymn, in German characters:

"EIN' FESTE BURG IST UNSER GOTT,"

with "1517," at one side, and "1867," at the other. In front of the pulpit was the following, on a large arch:

"THY WORD IS TRUTH."
"THE JUST SHALL LIVE BY FAITH."
"THE WORD OF THE LORD IS NOT BOUND."
"LET THERE BE LIGHT."

In front of the gallery an arch bore these words:

"GOD IS OUR REFUGE AND STRENGTH."

The ladies and gentlemen who worked so faithfully at these decorations deserve great credit for the exceedingly tasteful manner in which the work was done.

The services thus auspiciously begun will be continued at intervals, through out the whole of the Jubilee year, i. e., till October 31, 1868.

A REPORTED OUTRAGE.—It is rumored that a diabolical outrage was committed on the 20th ult., by a negro named Hall, upon the person of a young white girl, named Graff, about 16 years old, who was living in the family of a Mr. Clouser, in the neighborhood of Littlestown. She was alone in the house, and he tied her arms, and gagged her, and forcibly violated her person. The girl appeared before Esquire BISHOP in Littlestown, and gave a statement of the facts, when a warrant was issued for the negro's arrest. He was arrested and five hundred dollars bail demanded. Had indeed the constable to go a short distance into the country with him to procure the necessary security, but on the way here made his escape, since which time he has not been heard of.

These statements have been gathered from two accounts which are contradictory of each other in several respects. No information has yet reached the District Attorney on the subject; and we have been unable to get accurate information concerning it. Besides, there are some singular circumstances connected with the affair.

Considering the atrocity of the offence, the aggravations under which it was alleged to have been committed, and the youthfulness of the alleged victim, it is singular that so trifling an amount of bail was asked, and that the officer in charge of the prisoner did not take such measures as would have rendered escape impossible.

If a crime has been committed, we trust, that there will be no attempt to "hush it up," or conceal the real facts; but that the law may be vindicated by the prompt trial and punishment of its violator.

ELECTION.—The following persons have been elected officers of the Gettysburg and Petersburg turnpike company, for the ensuing year:—President—William D. Himes. Managers—William McSherry, Jacob Wirt, George Swope, Joseph Bayly, Marcus Sampson, John H. McClellan. Treasurer—John H. McClellan. The Company has made a dividend of one per cent.

CIGARS AND TOBACCO.—The most extensive variety of Cigars of choice brands are always to be had at the store of WASHINGTON BIERBOWER, in Chambersburg st., below the Eagle Hotel, in Nicholas Weaver's new house, south side. He is a practical Tobacconist, and is agent for the sale of the best brands of Tobacco. All persons in that branch of business, will find it of advantage to test his prices, the quality of his goods, and the opportunities he offers for dealing on good terms. Give him a call. It

YESTERDAY, elections were held in New York, New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Illinois, Kansas, Missouri, and Nevada.—Some of these Commonwealths vote for a Governor and State officers, but in others the ticket is only local.

ANDREW KANE, who lives near Waterford, New York, one day last week set a bull dog on a cow, and finding that he was injuring her, was attempting to separate them, when another cow rushed at Kane, planted her horns in his abdomen, and threw him high into the air. RAILROAD MOVEMENTS.—It is not generally known that the last Legislature passed a very important bill, entitled "An Act to incorporate the Caledonia Iron, Land and Railroad Company," with enlarged corporate powers, looking not only to the development of the mineral resources of the Southern tier of counties, but also to the construction of a new Railroad route to the West. Among other franchises, the Company to be organized under the Act is authorized to hold 20,000 Acres of land, with authority "to mortgage, lease, sell or otherwise dispose of the same, or any part thereof." The company is unrestricted as to the amount of capital stock, and is further authorized "to manufacture and prepare for market lumber and articles produced on the land, and to provide and open mines, to mine and prepare for market coal, iron ore, limestone, fire clay and other minerals, or to use and consume the same, and to manufacture iron and fire bricks, and to transport all said articles, or any of them, to market, and dispose of the same, and to do all such other acts and things as may be necessary to the prosecution of said business, and also to make all such improvements and erections as a successful prosecution of said business may require."

Section 6 confers authority to "construct and operate a railroad or railroads, with branches, from any part of their lands to connect with the Caledonia and South Mountain Railroad Company, or it branches, or with any other railroad now or hereafter to be built."

The franchises conferred by this Act are of the most liberal kind—almost unprecedented, it is claimed that under the 6th section, the Company can build a railroad from Philadelphia to Pittsburg, along the Susquehanna river, and we notice by the Pittsburg papers that the project is already being agitated.

Of the corporators named in the Act, Thaddeus Stevens, G. Dawson Coleman, J. D. Cameron, Wm. Colder, J. W. Ahl, D. V. Ahl, S. G. Morrison, C. S. Kauffman, Henry McCormick, Elias Ellmaker, A. K. Smith, and Samuel Hambright are the only names we have seen as yet public.

The Chambersburg Repository says: "The commissioners appointed from Chambersburg to receive Cumberland Valley subscriptions to the Cumberland Valley Railroad, commenced operations yesterday morning, and closed last evening. The Repository says: "The sessions were conducted with the utmost harmony and enthusiasm, and the amount subscribed was very much larger than was generally expected. Many persons who had come to the meeting with the intention of subscribing but a few shares, were induced to take a much larger number, and were found to be willing to subscribe to the extent of half the maximum sum in private stock. The result exceeds all expectations, and will speedily become one of the most profitable branches of railroad in the State.

ALTHOUGH Congress meets on the 21st of November, it is learned from an entirely trustworthy source that it is not the intention of the President to send his message, nor that of the Secretary of the Treasury to send his report to Congress until the commencement of second session, which will be Monday, December 2. The meeting of November 21 is an adjournment of the first session, and will close by an adjournment sine die on November 30 or sooner.

SOMERVILLE, N. J., October 31.—Last night between 9 and 10 o'clock Mrs. Charles J. Walker shot her husband at Bound Brook, N. J., five miles east of this place. Mrs. W. met her husband in a bar-room and requested him to accompay her home. Upon his refusing she drew a pistol and shot him in the forehead, the ball glancing and inflicting a severe, though not dangerous wound. The cause appears to be that she considered him unfaithful to his marriage vows. The parties reside at New Brunswick, N. J., and occupy a respectable position in society.

THE Pontiac (Michigan) Jeffersonian is an honest Democratic paper. It ayows its true principles, without fear and without concealment. It says:

"For six years Democracy has felt humiliated and ashamed of itself, because forced into a wrong position. It has been a hypocrite and a liar all through the war. The war is Black Republican property."

And again:

"What is Gen." Sherman but a murderer, an invader of private rights and a cotton thief? If the Democrats are mean enough to put in nomination any pup for President who ever wore shoulder-straps during the abolition crusade, we hope he will be defeated, and we will do all in our power to accomplish that end."

THE terms of twenty-one United States Senators will expire on the 4th of March, 1869, of whom fourteen are Republican and seven Democratic; but it is scarcely possible for the Democracy to break the two-thirds power of the Republicans in that body, during the existence of the 41st Congress. One of these Democrats is Patterson of Tennessee, whom Brownlow has been chosen to succeed. Dewitt Clinton, Republican Speaker of the Senate of Tennessee, will succeed Brownlow as Governor on his becoming Senator in March, 1869.

FOREIGN NEWS.

News by way of Paris states that the French and Papal troops jointly attacked Garibaldi's force on Sunday at Monte Rotondo, and defeated him. One account says that Garibaldi was taken prisoner; another represents him as being killed on the field of battle, whilst still a third version of the affair says that after being defeated by the French and Papal troops, he surrendered to the Italians. Riots are reported as having taken place in Paris on Sunday at several points.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30, 1867.—The scheme of retrogression in the South has assumed a wider range than Andrew Johnson ever intended. Those who doubted that the rebels would ever attempt to regain their lost cause if encouraged to do so by the Northern elections, begin to admit that they were wrong. The rebels boldly look to recover everything, beginning with compensation for their slaves. Wigfall and Benjamin are in London collecting evidences of the Confederate debt in British hands, so as to make a case when the South, remitted to all her rights, refuses to pay her share of the national taxes unless her claims are acknowledged. Herschel V. Johnson is engaged to recover damages for the confiscation of his property during the war, and his associates are whining for the refund. The number of claims for damages presented by these virtuous saints is enormous. They are not only besieging the departments, but the courts and the rally against the confiscation law has become almost as fashionable as that against the negroes. Every District rebel who fought against his country, and lost his property here for doing so, is back amongst us under A. J.'s protection, demanding indemnity for the past and security for the future.

GENERAL MEADE has taken measures to suppress rebellion, to arrest the civil courts with those juries in the district who have deserted absolute and plantations from the government during the war and have since been confiscated by them. The former owners have instituted all sorts of vexatious suits to invalidate the undisputed possession of the growing crops. General Meade, after examining one of these suits, in a special order, dated October 4th, states that the lessees have absolute use and disposition of the property. He has also ordered from office, the Rebel Sheriff of New Orleans, General Harry Hayes. The Copperheads will, we suppose, howl over this new military outrage.

THE Copperhead Editors figure up a gain for their party of 11,000 votes in thirty-five counties in Indiana, but say nothing of the remaining counties of the State in which the Copperheads more than twice as much. The total vote of the Republicans in the whole State is about 260,000. An Indiana paper says:

"The Republican majority in the whole State is between 22,000 and 25,000, larger by nearly ten or fifteen thousand than any majority in 1864, and by nearly twice than our majority in 1866. The Republicans elected their county ticket in two-thirds of the counties, and ten of the eleven Congressional districts gave Republican majorities, the Second and Fourth by large ones."

AN OLD LETTER OF GEN GRANT.—An Illinois paper prints the following letter from General Grant to General Logan, written from Vicksburg in August, 1863, while Logan was making Republican speeches in Illinois:

"SIR: I see you ten days extension of leave, and will give you as many more as you require. I have read your speeches in Illinois, and feel that you are really doing more good there than you can possibly do while the army of your command is lying idle.

"Stay while you feel such good results are being worked by your absence, and I will extend your leave to cover your absence. In the meantime, should any movement of your command be contemplated, I will notify you as early as possible of it."

EXTRACT OF A LETTER FROM BARON SOLOMON ROTHSCHILD

PARIS, 8th April, 1866, 25 Rue Faubg, St. Honore.

Will you be kind enough to send by return mail, three 200 bottles of your Indian Liniment; if you will send at the same time the account, I will forward you the amount thereof by Draft. Answer Quick.

BARON SOLOMON ROTHSCHILD having recommended to many of his friends MAGIC LANE'S LINIMENT, and they being delighted to procure it, he should advise him to establish a depot in Paris.

THE INDIAN LINIMENT,

as a relief, ever ready; as a killer of pain, taken inward by, or outwardly applied, has no equal. For the relief and cure of Rheumatic and Neuralgic Affections, Sprains, Bruises, &c., it is unequalled. It is also most efficacious, taken internally, in the cure of Cholera, Dysentery, Emissions, Physical and Nervous Debility and derangements of the Urinary organs. Positive benefit is derived by using a single box. It is entirely vegetable and harmless and no change of diet is necessary whilst using them.

Price one Dollar per box with full directions.

BASSINI'S

Twenty Melodic Exercises,

IN FORM OF

SOLFEGGIOS FOR SOPRANO OR MEZZO SOPRANO VOICES,

Studies to acquire the Art of Singing.

"These exercises were composed to be used simultaneously with his system, "THE ART OF SINGING," or with any other method for the cultivation of the voice, and will take the place of CONCONE'S SOLFEGGIOS; being more melodious and better adapted for teaching.

"Some of these exercises are specially beautiful as well as useful, a mingling of the dolce et utile, which secures the interest as well as the improvement of the student. The various styles developed in these exercises render them invaluable in an educational point of view, as they tend to enlarge the intelligences and the appreciation, and at the same time form the taste of the pupil. They must be studied carefully with reference to the innumerable marks of expression and forms of ornamentation. Upon the minute accuracy with which these are accomplished depends the actual sterling advancement of the pupil; any evasion or slurring in these respects in time and effort utterly wasted, while, on the other hand, a close and patient investigation, and a minutely faithful execution of them, will give unexpected power and facility, and open to the student the means and resources by which great artists produce their most brilliant and profound effects.—Watson's Art Journal.

Miscellaneous.

A LIBRARY OF UNIVERSAL INFORMATION.

THE NEW

AMERICAN CYCLOPÆDIA:

A POPULAR DICTIONARY OF GENERAL KNOWLEDGE.

EDITED BY

GEORGE RIPLEY AND CHARLES A. DANA,

AIDED BY A NUMEROUS SELECT CORPS OF WRITERS, IN ALL BRANCHES OF SCIENCE, ART, AND LITERATURE.

In 16 large volumes, 8vo.

750 double-column pages in each volume.

The leading claims to public consideration which the New American Cyclopædia possesses may be thus briefly stated:

"1. It surpasses all other works in the fulness and ability of the articles relating to the United States.

"2. No other work contains so many reliable biographies of the leading men of this and other nations. In this respect it is far superior even to the more bulky Encyclopædia Britannica.

"3. The best minds in this country have been employed in enriching its pages with the latest ideas, and the most recent discoveries in every branch of manufactures, mechanics, and general science.

"4. It is a library in itself, where every topic is treated, and where information can be gleaned which will enable a student, if he is so disposed, to consult other authorities, thus affording him an invaluable key to knowledge.

"5. It is neatly printed, with readable type, on good paper, and contains a most copious index.

"6. It is the only work which gives any thing approaching correct descriptions of cities and towns of America, or embraces reliable statistics showing the wonderful growth of all sections."

Every one that reads, every one that mingles in society, is constantly meeting with allusions to subjects on which he needs and desires further information. In conversation, in trade, in professional life, on the farm, in the family, practical questions are continually arising, which no man, well read or not, can always satisfactorily answer. If facilities for reference are at hand, they are consulted, and not only is the curiosity gratified, and the stock of knowledge increased, but perhaps information is gained and ideas are suggested that will directly contribute to the business success of the party concerned.

A Cyclopædia is preeminently the work for our country and generation. This is the age of steam. No one has time to grope among a hundred different works for every little fact required, without the certainty of finding it at last. With a Cyclopædia, embracing every conceivable subject, and having its topics alphabetically arranged, not a moment is lost. The matter in question is found at once, digested, condensed, stripped of all that is irrelevant and unnecessary, and verified by a comparison of the best authorities. Moreover, while only men of fortune can collect a library complete in all the departments of knowledge, a Cyclopædia, worth in itself for purposes of reference at least a thousand volumes, is within the reach of all,—the clerk, the merchant, the professional man, the farmer, the mechanic in a country like ours, where the humblest may be called to responsible positions requiring intelligence and general information, the value of such a work cannot be over-estimated.
